Darkness fills the richest skies

Fast cars, expensive wines
Choice tickets to all plays
First class, no crowded lines
You're safe when it rains

Cold winds and secret sins
Hard looks become mastered
Head smart, fearful heart
Your life is absurd

Darkness fills the richest skies
In the end you too will die
Oo...oo..oo...

Lift the main mast, make the present past
Let's sail for the high seas
Fun night under heavens lights
Free wind in our hair

Sing songs, dance all night long
Read poems of passion
Fools die, lovers cry
Love takes us beyond
