

Written and composed by Adam and Jessica Kelly

Even if it takes all my life

I know that it's hard to see
That one day we can all be free
When the mind says it can't go on
Call the heart for a marathon
Too late isn't late enough
For deep down we have got that stuff
I know we get beaten down
But I still believe we can fetch that crown

Even if it takes all my life
Even if it takes all my life

We pull up on a desert street
Search for colors in a place that's bleak
How we wish we could see some green
And travel away on the sunrise beams
But when we can't see the promise land
All we need is to take a stand
A bit of faith in what we are
Say we can reach to the farthest star